

Modifiers for Physician Practices

A Self-Paced CD-ROM Continuing Education Course

CPT modifiers have long been a topic of many discussions, questions and audits. Modifiers for Physician Practices, from HealthcareBusinessOffice, is a self-paced, CD-ROM course that reviews HCPCS Level I CPT modifiers that might be relevant to the physician practice environment.

This course features in-depth coverage of modifier usage, the do's and don'ts of modifiers, and guidelines on how to support the modifier used (supporting documentation). This course also takes a close look at modifiers that are similar in description, and emphasizes the differences for a better understanding of usage and reporting.

Modifiers for Physician Practices also takes a look at the more common HCPCS Level II modifiers – their usage, guidelines, and reporting purposes.
